ALL INDIA ORGANISATAION OF EMPLOYERS

AIOE

The All India Organisation of Employers' (AIOE), an allied body of Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FICCI), is the oldest and apex national employers association of India. It is the platform of Indian industry to raise their voice to formulate labour and social policies to promote business, trade and industrialization in the country

AIOE was setup in 1932 to provide representation to Indian employers in the tripartite setup of the Government to draw labour and social policies.

What AIOE does?

For over 8 decades now, AIOE has been serving the cause of Indian industry by promoting sound industrial relations and better understanding between employers and workers on the mutuality of interests. It has been working towards growth and development of Industry, Trade and Commerce patronizing collective bargaining, negotiation and social dialogues between the three social partners i.e. Government, Employers and Trade Unions. In addition to it, AIOE has been providing assistance to industry in their day to day industrial relations, human resource management, social security, safety and health issues through capacity building of its members by training, consultation and disseminating information on various labour legislations addressing HR, industrial relations and employment issues.

AIOE's Leadership

Eminent Indian industrialists and philanthropists like Shri. G D Birla, Shri. Kasturbhai Lalbhai, Shri. G M Modi, Shri. Shri Ram were some of the notable Indian business personalities of yesteryears, who have been the illustrious Presidents of the organization.
