(18) A party in an award, who wants to obtain a copy of the award or other document, may obtain a copy of the award or other document after depositing the fee electronically to the head of account maintained for this purpose or any other mode notified by the Government time to time, in the following manner, namely,-

- (a) fee for obtaining a copy of an award or document filed in any proceedings of Industrial Tribunal be charged at the rate of rupees Two per page;
- (b) For certifying a copy of any such award or order or document, a fee of rupees Two per

(c) Where a party applies for immediate delivery of a copy of any such award or document, an additional fee equal to one-half of the fee leviable under this rule shall be payable;

(d) State Government may revise the above said fee by notification in the Official Gazette.

(19) The representatives of the parties appearing before Industrial Tribunal shall have the right of examination, cross-examination and of addressing the Industrial Tribunal when evidence has been called.

(20) The proceedings before Industrial Tribunal shall be held in open Court:

Provided that the Industrial Tribunal may direct any proceeding before it to be held by video conferencing:

Provided further that Tribunal may at any stage direct that any witness shall be examined or its proceedings be held in-camera.

(21) Industrial Tribunal or any person authorised by the writing of the tribunal may for the purpose of any investigation, enquiry, adjudication entrusted to the Tribunal under the Code at any time between hours of sunrise and sunset and in case of a person authorised in writing by tribunal after he has given reasonable notice, enter any industrial establishment or undertaking or premises and inspect the same or any machinery appliances or articles therein or interrogate any person therein, in respect of anything situated there in or any matter relevant to subject matter of the investigation enquiry or adjudication.

(22) Subject to the provisions contained in the above sub-rules and rule 78 the sitting of the Industrial Tribunal or an arbitrator shall be held at such time and places as the tribunal or the arbitrator as the case may fix and shall inform the parties of the same in such manner as he thinks fit.

(23) The Industrial Tribunal or arbitrator may at any time correct any clerical mistake or error arising from an accidental slip or omission in any proceedings, report, award or decision either of its or his own motion or on the application of any of the parties.

(24) Any matter defined under Section 2 (q) of the Code can be matter for negotiation by the Trade Unions or negotiation council under section 14.

85. Written Agreement under clause (zi) of section 2.- The written agreement under clause (zi) of section 2 between the employer and worker shall be in Form XXI and signed by the parties in the agreement. A copy of the agreement shall be sent to the concerned conciliation officer.

86. Register of settlements.-The conciliation officer shall file all settlements effected under the Code in respect of disputes in the area within his jurisdiction in a register maintained electronically or manually in Form XXXI.

87. Application for recovery of dues.- (1) Where any money is due from an employer to a workman or a group of workmen or a deceased workman, under a settlement or an award or under the provisions of Chapter IX or Chapter X of the Code, the workman, the group of workmen, a person authorised in writing by the workman, as the case may be, the assignee or legal heir of the deceased workman, may apply in Form XXXII for the recovery of the money due.

(2) Where any workman or a group of workmen, is entitled to receive from the employer any money or any benefit which is capable of being computed in terms of money the workman or the group of workmen, as the case may be, may apply to the specified Industrial Tribunal in Form XXXIII for the determination of the amount due or as the case may be the amount at which benefit should be computed:

Provided that, in the case of the death of a workman, application shall be made in Form XXXIV by the assignee or legal heir of the deceased workman.

88. Appointment of Commissioner.- Where it is necessary to appoint a Commissioner under sub-section (3) of section 59 of the Code, the Industrial Tribunal may appoint a person with experience in the particular industry, trade or business involved in the industrial dispute or a Secretary of Industrial Tribunal, or Tribunal constituted under any State Act or Tribunal constituted under the Code.

89. Fees for the Commissioner etc.- (1) The Industrial Tribunal shall after consultation with the parties estimate the probable duration of the enquiry and fix the amount of the fees of the Commissioner and other incidental expenses and direct the payment to the Commissioner by the parties thereof into the nearest treasury within a specified time by such party or parties and in such proportion as it may consider fit.

(2) The Industrial Tribunal shall not issue any order of posting as per above sub-rule until the sum fixed as fee is deposited into the treasury:

Provided that the Industrial Tribunal may from time to time direct that any further sum or sums be deposited into the treasury within such time and by such parties as it may consider fit:

Provided further that the Industrial Tribunal may in its discretion extend the time for depositing the sum into the treasury.

(3) The Industrial Tribunal may, at any time for reasons to be recorded in writing vary the amount of the fees of the Commissioner in consultation with the parties.

(4) The Industrial Tribunal may direct that the fees shall be disbursed to the Commissioner in such installments and on such dates as it may consider fit.

(5) The undisbursed balance, if any, of the sum deposited shall be refunded to the party or parties who deposited the sum in the same proportion as that in which it was deposited.

90. Time for submission of report.- (1) Every order for the issue of a Commission shall appoint a date, allowing sufficient time, for the Commissioner to submit his report.

(2) If for any reason the Commissioner anticipates that the date fixed for the submission of his report is likely to be exceeded he shall apply, before the expiry of the said date, for extension of time setting forth grounds thereof and the Industrial Tribunal shall take such grounds into consideration in passing orders on the application:

Provided that the Industrial Tribunal may grant extension of time, notwithstanding that no application for such extension has been received from the Commissioner within the prescribed time limit.

91. Local investigation.- In any industrial dispute in which the Industrial Tribunal deems a local investigation to be requisite or proper for the purpose of computing the money value of a benefit, the Industrial Tribunal may issue a Commission to a person referred to in rule 87 directing him to make such investigation and to report thereon to it.

92. Report of the Commissioner.- (1) The Commissioner after such local inspection as he deems necessary and after reducing to writing the evidence taken by him shall return such evidence together with his report in writing signed by him to the Industrial Tribunal .

(2) Report of the Commissioner and the evidence taken by him (but not the evidence, without the report) shall be evidence in the industrial dispute and shall form part of the record of the proceedings in the industrial dispute; but the Industrial Tribunal or, with the permission of the Industrial Tribunal any of the parties to the Industrial dispute may examine the Commissioner personally before the Industrial Tribunal as to any of the matters referred to him or mentioned in his report or as to his reports; or as to the manner in which he has made the investigation.

(3) Where the Industrial Tribunal is dissatisfied with the proceedings of the Commissioner it may direct such further enquiry to be made as it think fit.

93. Powers of Commissioner.- Any Commissioner appointed under these rules may unless otherwise directed by the order of appointment has the following powers, namely:-

(a) examine the parties themselves and any witness whom, they or any of them may produce and any other person whom the Commissioner thinks proper to call upon to give evidence in the matter referred to him;

(b) call for and examine documents and other things relevant to the subject of enquiry;

(c) at any reasonable time enter upon or into any land or building mentioned in the order.

94. Summoning of witnesses etc.- (1) The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908) relating to the summoning attendance, examination of witnesses and penalties to be imposed upon witnesses shall apply to persons required to give evidence or to produce documents before the Commissioner under these rules.

(2) Every person who is summoned and appears as a witness before the Commissioner shall be entitled to payment by the Industrial Tribunal out of the sum deposited under rule 88, of an allowance for expenses incurred by him in accordance with the scale for the time being in force for payment of such allowance to witnesses appearing in the Civil Courts.

95. Representation of parties before the Commissioner.- The parties to the industrial disputes shall appear before the Commissioner, either in person or by any other person who is competent to represent them in the proceedings before the Industrial Tribunal.

Chapter IX

STRIKES AND LOCK-OUTS

96. Notice of Strike under sub-section (4) of section 62.— (1) The notice of strike referred to in sub-section (1) of section 62 shall be given to the employer of an industrial establishment in Form XXXV which shall be duly signed by the Secretary and five elected representatives of the registered Trade Union relating to such industrial establishment endorsing the copy thereof electronically or by post to the Conciliation Officer concerned, Labour Commissioner and the State Government.

(2) If the employer of an industrial establishment receives from any person employed by him any notice of strike as referred to in sub-section (1) of section 62 then he shall within five days from the date of receiving of such notice, intimate the same electronically or by post to the conciliation officer concerned and Labour Commissioner.

The notice shall be displayed conspicuously by the employer on a notice board or on electronic board at the main entrance to the industrial establishment.

CHAPTER X

LAY OFF, RETRENCHMENT AND CLOSURE

98. Procedure for decision under section 65(2).— If a question arises regarding payment of lay off compensation under section 67 and the employee of the industrial establishment concerned contends that his establishment is of a seasonal character or work therein is performed only intermittently the employer or workman or representatives of employer or workman may submit to the Government a petition praying for a decision by the Government. The Government shall notwithstanding any conciliation or adjudication that is pending in this behalf then sent to the opposite party or parties and to the Labour Commissioner of the State a copy of the petition and shall appoint a day for hearing of the petition, the parties shall also be invited. After hearing the parties and after perusing the records if any produced by them, the Government shall arrive at a decision which shall be reduced to writing and communicated to the parties. The decision of the Government there on shall be final.

99. Manner of serving notice before retrenchment of the worker under clause (c) of section 70. - If any employer desires to retrench any worker employed in his industrial establishment who has been in continuous service for not less than one year under him then, such employer shall give notice of such retrenchment, in Form XXXVII to the State Government, Labour Commissioner and the conciliation officer concerned electronically or by registered post.

100. Maintenance of Seniority list of workmen.- The employer shall prepare a list of all workmen in the particular category from which retrenchment is contemplated arranged according to the seniority of their service in that category and cause a copy thereof to be posted on a notice board in a conspicuous place in the premises of the industrial establishment at least seven days before the actual date of retrenchment.

101. Manner of giving an opportunity for re-employment to the retrenched workers under section 72.- (1) Where any vacancy occurs in an industrial establishment and there are workers of such industrial establishment retrenched within one year prior to the proposal for filling up such vacancy, then, the employer of such industrial establishment shall offer an opportunity at least ten days before by registered post or electronically, to such retrenched workers. If such workers give their willingness for employment then, the employer shall give them preference over other persons in filling up of such vacancy:

Provided that where the number of such vacancies is less than the number of retrenched workmen, it shall be sufficient if intimation is given by the employer individually to the senior most retrenched workmen in the list referred to in Rule 99:

Provided further that where the vacancy is of a duration of less than one month, there shall be no obligation on the employer to send intimation of such vacancy to individual retrenched workmen.

(2) Immediately after complying with the provisions of sub-rule (1) the employer shall also inform the trade unions connected with the industrial establishment of the number of vacancies to be filled and names of the retrenched workmen to whom intimation has been sent under that sub-rule:

Provided that the provisions of this sub-rule need not be complied with by the employer in any case where intimation is sent to every one of the workmen mentioned in the list prepared under rule 99.

102. Manner of serving notice by the employer for intended closure under sub-section (1) of section 74. — If an employer intends to close down an industrial establishment he shall give notice of such closure in Form XXXVII to the State Government and a copy thereof to the Labour Commissioner and the Conciliation Officer concerned electronically or by registered post.
