CHAPTER II MINIMUM WAGES

3. Manner of calculating the minimum rate of wages. - (1) For the purposes of sub-section (4) and (6) of section 6, the minimum rate of wages shall be fixed on the day basis keeping in view the following criteria, namely;-

- (i) the standard working class family which includes a spouse and two children apart from the earning worker; an equivalent of three adult consumption units;
- (ii) a net intake of 2700 calories per day per consumption unit;
- (iii) 66 meters cloth per year per standard working class family;
- (iv) housing rent expenditure to constitute 10 per cent of food and clothing expenditure;
- (v) fuel, electricity and other miscellaneous items of expenditure to constitute 20 percent of minimum wage; and
- (vi) expenditure for education of children, medical requirement, recreation and expenditure on contingencies to constitute 25 percent of minimum wages;

(2) When the rate of wages for a day is fixed, then, such amount shall be divided by eight for fixing the rate of wages for an hour and multiplied by twenty six for fixing the rate of wages for a month and in such division and multiplication the factors of one-half and more than one-half shall be rounded as next figure and the factors less than one-half shall be ignored.

4. Norms for fixation of minimum rate of wages.- (1) While fixing the minimum rate of wages under section 6, the State Government shall divide the geographical area concerned into three categories, such as the municipal corporation, municipality and the rural area.

(2) The State Government shall constitute and notify a Technical Committee under sub-section (6) of section 6 for the purpose of advising the Government in respect of skill categorization, which shall consist of the following members, namely:-

- (i) Labour Commissioner - Chairperson;
- (ii) Director of employment or nominee, Government of Kerala - member;
- (iii) Joint Secretary to the Government of Kerala, Labour and Skills Department - member;
- (iv) a representative from the Government of Kerala, dealing with skill development;
- (v) two experts in wage determination from State Government - members;
- (vi) Secretary, State Advisory Board – Member; and
- (vii) Additional Labour Commissioner of the Labour Department - Member Secretary.

(3) The State Government shall, on the advice of the technical committee referred to in sub-rule (2), categorize the occupations of the employees into four categories of unskilled, skilled, semi-skilled and highly skilled by modifying, deleting or adding any entry in the categorization of such occupation specified in Schedule A.

(4) The technical committee referred in sub-rule (2) shall while advising the State Government under sub-rule (3) take into account, to the possible extent, the national classification of occupation or national skills qualification frame work or other similar frame work for the time being formulated to identify occupations.

(5) The State Government shall from time to time notify the category of workers, considering the arduousness of work or hazardous occupation or process or underground work and additional rate of wages entitled by such workers.

5. Time Interval for revision of dearness allowance.- The dearness allowance payable to employees on minimum wages shall be revised in every April and October on the basis of cost of living allowance and cash value of concession in respect of essential commodities of the preceding six months.

Explanation.- Dearness allowance payable from every April to September shall be computed in accordance with the average of consumer price index for the previous October to March and that from every October to March shall be computed in accordance with the average of Consumer Price Index for the previous April to September.

6. Number of hours of work which shall constitute a normal working day.- (1) The normal working day under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 13 shall be comprised of eight hours of work and one or more intervals of rest which in total shall not exceed one hour.

(2) The working day of an employee shall be so arranged that inclusive of the intervals of rest, if any, it shall not spread over more than ten and half hours on any day:

Provided that the Labour Commissioner may for the reasons to be specified in writing increases the spread over up to twelve hours.

(3) The provisions of sub-rules (1) and (2) shall, in the case of an employee employed in agricultural employment, be subject to such modifications as may, from time to time, be notified by the State Government.

(4) Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to affect the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948 (Central Act 63 of 1948).

7. Weekly day of rest.- (1) Subject to the provisions of this rule, an employee shall be allowed a day of rest every week (hereinafter referred to as “the rest day”) which shall ordinarily be Sunday, but the employer may fix any other day of the week as the rest day for any employee or class of employees:

Provided that an employee shall be entitled for the rest day under this sub-rule if he has worked under the same employer for a continuous period of not less than six days:

Provided further that the employee shall be informed of the day fixed as the rest day and of any subsequent change in the rest day before the change is effected, by display of a notice to that effect in the place of employment at the place specified by the Inspector-cum-Facilitator in this behalf.

Explanation.- For the purpose of computation of the continuous period of not less than six days specified in the first proviso to this sub-rule, any day on which an employee is required to attend for work but is given only an allowance for attendance and is not provided with work, a day on which an employee is laid off on payment of compensation under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act 14 of 1947), and any leave or holiday, with or without pay, granted by the employer to an employee in the period of six days immediately preceding the rest day, shall be deemed to be days on which the employee has worked.

- (2) Any such employee shall not be required or allowed to work on the rest day unless he has or will have a substituted rest day for a whole day on one of the five days immediately before or after the rest day:

Provided that no substitution shall be made which will result in the employee working for more than ten days consecutively without a rest day for a whole day.

- (3) Where in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this rule, any employee works on a rest day and has been given a substituted rest day on any one of the five days before or after the rest day, the rest day shall, for the purpose of calculating the weekly hours of work, be included in the week in which the substituted rest day occurs.

- (4) An employee shall be granted,-

(a) for rest day wages calculated at the rate applicable to the next preceding day; and

(b) where he works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then, he shall be paid wages for the rest day on which he worked, at the overtime rate and wages for the substituted rest day at the rate applicable to the next preceding day:

Provided that where-

(i) the minimum rate of wages of the employee as notified under the Code has been worked out by dividing the minimum monthly rate of wages by twenty- six; or

(ii) the actual daily rate of wages of the employee has been worked out by dividing the monthly rate of wages by twenty-six and such actual daily rate of wages is not less than the notified minimum daily rate of wages of the employee, then, no wages for the rest day shall be payable; and

(iii) the employee works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then, he shall be paid, only for the rest day on which he worked, an amount equal to the wages payable to him at the overtime rate; and, if any dispute arises whether the daily rate of wages has been worked out in accordance with the provisions, the District Labour Officer having territorial jurisdiction may, on application made to him in this behalf, decide the same, after giving an opportunity to the parties concerned to make written representations. Any person aggrieved by such order may file an appeal before the Joint Labour Commissioner having jurisdiction over the area:

Provided further that in case of an employee governed by a piece-rate system, the wages for the rest day, or the substituted rest day, as the case may be, shall be such as the State Government may, from time to time determine having regard to the minimum rate of wages fixed under the Code, in respect of the employment.

Explanation.- In this sub-rule 'next preceding day' means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day or the substituted rest day, as the case may be; and where the substituted rest day falls on a day immediately after the rest day, the next preceding day means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day.

- (5) The provisions of this rule shall not operate to the prejudice of more favorable terms, if any, to which an employee may be, entitled under any other law or under the terms of any award, agreement or contract of service, and in such a case, the employee shall be entitled only to more favorable terms aforesaid.

Explanation.- For the purposes of this rule, 'week' shall mean a period of seven days beginning at midnight on Saturday night.

8. Night shifts.- Where an employee in an employment works on a shift which extends beyond midnight, then,-

- (a) a rest day for the whole day for the purposes of rule 7 shall, in this case means a period of twenty-four consecutive hours beginning from the time when his shift ends; and
- (b) the following day in such a case shall be deemed to be the period of twenty-four hours beginning from the time when such shift ends, and the hours after midnight during which such employee was engaged in work shall be counted towards the previous day.

9. The extent and conditions for the purposes of sub-section (2) of section 13.- In case of employees,-

- (a) engaged in any emergency which could not have been foreseen or prevented;
- (b) engaged in work of the nature of preparatory or complementary work which must necessarily be carried on outside the limits laid down for the general working in the employment concerned;
- (c) whose employment is essentially intermittent;
- (d) engaged in any work which for technical reasons has to be completed before the duty is over; and
- (e) engaged in a work which could not be carried on except at times dependent on the irregular action of natural forces; the provisions of rules 6, 7 and 8 shall apply subject to the condition that -

- (i) the spread over of the hours of work of the employee shall not exceed 12 hours in any day; and
- (ii) the actual hours of work excluding the intervals of rest and the periods of inaction during which the employee may be on duty but is not called upon to display either physical activity or sustained attendance shall not exceed eight hours in any day.

43. The form of a single application.- A single application, may be filed under sub-section (5) of section 45 in Form-II along with documents specified in such Form.

44. Form of Appeal.- (1) Any person aggrieved by an order passed by the authority under sub-section (2) of section 45 of code may prefer an appeal under sub-section (1) of section 49 in Form III, along with documents specified in such form, to the appellate authority having jurisdiction:

Provided that no appeal by an employer shall be admitted unless the claim amount ordered is deposited, before the appellate authority or on production of receipt of deposit of amount before the authority.

(2) The amount to be deposited as per sub-rule (1) of rule 51 shall be in the manner as directed by the State Government from time to time in this behalf.

45. Register of Wages and deductions.- (1) All fines and all realization thereof referred to in sub-section (8) of section 19 shall be recorded in a register to be kept by the employer in Form I or electronically in Form I A as the case may be appended to these rules and the authority referred to in the said sub-section (8) shall be the Additional Labour Commissioner having jurisdiction.

(2) All deductions and all realization referred to in sub-section (3) of section 21, sub-section (1) of section 50 shall be recorded in a register to be kept by the employer in Form- I or Form I A appended to these rules, electronically or otherwise.

46. Wage slip.- Every employer shall issue wage slips, electronically or otherwise to the employees in Form IV under sub-section (3) of section 50 on or before payment of wages.

47. Muster Roll.- Every employer shall maintain a Muster Roll in Form V under sub-section (1) of section 50.

48. Employee Register.- Every Employer not included in Schedule B shall maintain a register of employees in Form VI.

CHAPTER VIII ENQUIRY AND COMPOUNDING

49. Power to hold enquiry.-

(1) The State Government shall appoint an officer in the rank of Additional Labour Commissioner of the Labour Department as an officer for holding enquiry under sub-section (1) of section 53.

(2) The State Government shall appoint subordinate officers and staffs to the officer appointed under schedule (1), as it considers necessary for the efficient discharge of its function under this Code and Rule.

50. Manner of holding enquiry under sub-section (1) of section 53.- The manner of holding enquiry shall be as prescribed by the Central Government.

51. Compounding of Offences.- The State Government shall notify as many officers not below the rank of District Labour Officer as an officer for compounding of offences as compounding officer under sub-section (1) of section 56.

52. Manner of compounding of offences by the officer specified under sub-section (1) of section

56.- (1) The accused person if intent to compound the offence alleged against him under clause (a) and (c) of sub-section (1) and sub-section (2) of section 54 may submit an application in Form VII to the officer notified by the Government for the purpose of compounding of offences under rule 51.

(2) If prosecution is pending before the Judicial First Class Magistrate Court under sub-section (2) of section 52 or enquiry commissioner appointed under sub-section (1) of section 53 of the code, the compounding officer shall sent an intimation of the receipt of application for composition to the court concerned or the enquiry officer.

(3) The Compounding officer, after due enquiry, found that the offence is compoundable, issue an order of composition directing to deposit the amount within fifteen days from the date of receipt of order.

(4) On receipt of the amount of composition the compounding officer shall issue an intimation in writing to the Judicial First Class Magistrate Court or the officer for enquiry appointed under sub-rule (1) of rule 49, as the case may be where the prosecution or enquiry is pending to discharge the accused.

(5) In case, if the accused person failed to deposit the compounding amount within the time prescribed, in sub-rule (3), he is liable for a fine according to sub-section (7) of section 56.

(6) In case, if the accused person failed to deposit the composition amount as per sub-rule (3) and (5), the compounding officer shall issue a certificate for that amount to the District Collector concerned who shall recover the same as arrears of land revenue.

CHAPTER X MISCELLANEOUS

53. Timely Payment of Wages to contract employees.- Where the employees are employed in an establishment through contractor, then, the company or firm or association of any other person who is the proprietor of the establishment shall pay to the contractor the amount payable to him or it, as the case may be, before the date of payment of wages so that payment of wages to the employees shall be made positively in accordance with the provisions of section 17.

Explanation.- For the purpose of this rule, the expression “firm” shall have the meaning as assigned to it in the Indian Partnership Act, 1932 (Central Act 9 of 1932).

54. Responsibility for payment of minimum bonus.- Where in an establishment, the employees are employed through contractor and the contractor fails to pay minimum bonus to them under section 26, then, the company or firm or association or other person as referred to in the proviso to section 43 shall, on the written information of such failure given by the employees or any registered trade union or unions of which the employees are members and on confirming such failure, pay such minimum bonus to the employees.

55. Inspection scheme.- For the purposes of the Code and these rules, there shall be formulated an inspection scheme by the Labour Commissioner with the approval of the State Government.
